M2S ELECTRONICS ANNOUNCES RENEWAL OF ISO 9001: 2015 CERTIFICATION

M2S Electronics has recently obtained renewal of ISO 9001 : 2015 certification for its design and assembly of electromechanical & electronic integrated systems, particularly in Transport, Energy, HVAC, Automotive and Medical industries.

In its latest version, the standard reinforces the role of management in the quality approach of the company, integrates the risk analysis and taking into account the external environment.

Our commitment to our customers to maintain high standards against our quality management system is once again confirmed.
